WRIGHT IS FREED BY SAPULPA JUSTICE

CROWD CHEERS AS
JURIST IS FREEDBribery Preliminary Ended
Suddenly by Justice
Piltz.

(By the Associated Press)
SAPULPA, July 29.—Charges that Judge Lucien B. Wright of the district court of Creek county accepted a bribe of $10,000 in connection with the decision for the Sally Atkins interests in the Tommy Atkins two million dollar oil land interests were dismissed twenty minutes after the justice court convened this morning for the third day of the trial.

The defense rested immediately on the opening of the court. Justice A. E. Piltz, before whom the hearing was held, at 9:35, soon after Attorney General S. P. Freeling, who conducted the prosecution, had stated that he waived cross examination, said:

Charges Are Weak
"This court dismisses the charge against Judge Wright, because no information whatever has been introduced to support the charge filed in the information."

The move of the defense which left 20 witnesses un-called was entirely unexpected as was Freeling's move to waive the argument. When the decision was announced the crowd in the tiny court room cheered and rose, several shaking Justice Piltz by the hand.

Attorney General Freeling made no statement other than to say the verdict was based by Judge Piltz on the evidence as he saw it.

Justice Piltz, in announcing the verdict said:

"In the estimation of this court, there has not been an ounce of evidence introduced against Judge Wright, and not a witness' testimony has incriminated the judge on the charge as contained in the information filed against him."

SAPULPA, July 29.—In little more than two days of the hearing during which the state offered the bulk of the testimony, evidence which bordered on the sensational was introduced. Witnesses testified that Judge Wright had declared that "he was not on the bench for nothing" and that "after July 1 I will have plenty of money and can then go away." Other witnesses testified that the judge had admitted that the decision in the Tommy Atkins case was wrong and asked that he be taken to Charles Page, against whom the case was decided, "that he might apologize."

It was also testified that at one time Judge Wright carried a gun to a conference with friends in a hotel room and that he declared "he expected to find Charles Page there and was going to have it out with him, and kill him."

Page later testified that funds which were paid to W. S. McCray a Tulsa oil man, who identified himself on the stand as a personal friend of Judge Wright, was given him in an effort "to obtain a confession," but not from Judge Wright directly to clear up the matter which was pending against Judge Wright.

Fraud Is Alleged
The defense in cross-examination attempted to show that the funds were implicated in the testimony. The Tommy Atkins case, in which the decision rendered by Judge Wright, which brought about the filing of information against him, was one of the most interesting in the long list of litigation over Oklahoma Indian oil land.

The case in question was on the mother of Tommy Atkins, enrolled by the Dawes Commission as a member of the Creek Indian tribe and who died in infancy. Minnie, Sally and Nancy Atkins, each claimed to be the mother of Tommy. Several years ago Nancy dropped out of the controversy and later Minnie was declared to be the mother by the late Judge Campbell, United States district court at Muskogee.

This decision is on appeal before the United States supreme court. On March 31 of this year, Judge Wright in district court of Creek County held that Sally was the mother.

This decision was against the Charles Page interests of Tulsa which held lease to the land, valued at approximately two million dollars, under Minnie. It had been previously decided in favor of Page and the decision had been affirmed in the circuit court of appeals. The case was later reopened.

GRAND JURY PROBE IS SUGGESTED TODAY

(By the Associated Press)
SAPULPA, July 29.—Attorney General Freeling in a written statement to the Associated Press said, "The conditions surrounding the regrettable affair demanded an investigation. The proof has been submitted to the court thoroughly and impartially and the court has delivered its judgment."

PELLAGRA REPORT
WAS NOT A SCAREPresident Replies That Condition in the South Is Serious.

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 29.—Replying to a charge that the administration had exaggerated pellagra and famine conditions in the south President Harding in a letter to Representative Byrnes of South Carolina today stated that official reports indicated the contrary and that the government investigation of the situation would go forward.

"You may be assured," the president declared, "that the last thing in the administration's mind has been to exaggerate the seriousness of the situation or to cause undue fears. The effort has been merely to develop the facts in order that the proper course might be determined in regard to them."

The president wrote in respect to Mr. Byrnes characterization of the belief that pellagra or famine existed in South Carolina as an "utter absurdity."

The president quoted from a telegram from Charles O. Heron, editor of the Spartanburg Herald, who said that he felt that the public health service was on "the right track and should continue its investigations."

SACK OF TOBACCO
ONLY LOOT TAKENLone Burglar Content With Feast and Smoke After Assault on Safe.

A small sack of smoking tobacco and a hand full of ginger snaps for a midnight lunch comprised the only pay a lone burglar got for his pains of breaking into the J. M. Keltner Wholesale Grocery company at 200 West Tenth street last night.

When Mr. Keltner arrived at the office this morning, tools that had been used by the looter, evidently an amateur, were scattered about the room. Entrance had been gained by tearing the screen off a south window of the office and a short carpenter's crowbar, a screwdriver, a hammer, a monkeywrench and a carpenter's bit lay in front of the safe. The outer door of the safe had been left open last night when the house closed its business for the day and the burglar had centered his efforts on an attempt to pry open the inside door. A short projection on the lock was smashed off and the lock was slightly strained by the bungling attempt to "jimmy" it.

After a vain effort to open the safe, the prowler apparently threw down his tools, took a coat which was hanging on the wall near the safe, filled an inside pocket with ginger snaps from the company's stock, annexed a sack of tobacco, and lay down for a feast.

Signs at the wholesale house this morning indicate that the man made a hurried retreat through the back door, leaving the coat with ginger snaps in the pocket. Mr. Keltner believes he was scared away. Nothing else could be missed from the big grocery stock. The sheriff's office was notified of the burglar's visit but no one has been arrested.

POLICE RECORDS

Jess Lee, Buck Elrod, Rance Jones and John O'Connell were brought before the mayor yesterday on a charge of loitering in Dark Town. Each was fined $10.75, Jones paying cash. O'Connell was confined to jail for his and Lee and Elrod made stay bonds.

ST. LOUIS, July 29.—Suit for $275,000 against the Parker-Washington company, local construction company and Milson McCormick of Kansas City and L. P. McCormick of St. Louis, stockholders, was filed in the circuit court today by Mrs. Elena Roe McCormick of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Mrs. McCormick, widow of David McCormick, who was president of the construction company, alleges that the defendants induced her husband to transfer his fortune of $1,500,000 to them shortly before his death in January, 1920.

SERVICE MEN MAY
BE RE-EXAMINEDParasites and "Shysters"
Bleeding the Veterans
Forbes Says.

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 29.—Re-examination of the 4,500,000 former service men and elimination of statutory red tape was suggested today by Colonel Charles R. Forbes, director of the War Risk Insurance Bureau as the best solution of the soldier relief problem.

Testifying before a Senate committee, Colonel Forbes said the bureau still suffered from too much "affidavitism," and too little "human interest."

Difficulties attendant on getting claims through the bureau had caused a new class of "parasites" to spring up, "robbing and bleeding the former service men faster than any shyster ever discovered before," Colonel Forbes said.

The Johnson City (Tenn.) Old Soldiers' Home was characterized as a "mad house" and Fort McHenry (Md.) Hospital described as "fit only for a sewage disposal plant."

Colonel Forbes said liquor and narcotics were sold among the 900 former service men at Johnson City.

NORTHLIFFE IS

Embassy Here.

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 29.—"For reasons of which he was not aware," an invitation to stop at the British embassy while in Washington has been withdrawn and Lord Northcliffe, the British publisher now visiting the United States, was listed among the guests at a local hotel today.

Disclosure that the embassy's hospitality which had previously been offered had been barred to the British publisher was made in a statement issued by him after arriving in Washington yesterday. On being approached as to rumors that the invitation to stop at the embassy and attend a dinner there last night had been withdrawn on instructions from London, he said that he viewed the incident as the outgrowth of a recent editorial attacking Premier Lloyd-George and Lord Curzon, the British foreign secretary, in the London Times, the leading Northcliffe newspaper, opposing the suggestion that these officials represent Great Britain at the Washington disarmament conference.

DENIES HE MADE ANY
REMARKS ABOUT KING

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 29.—Lord Northcliffe today made public the following cablegram sent to Lord Stamfordham, private secretary to King George:

"Please convey to his majesty with my humble duty my denial of ever having ascribed to his majesty the word or words as stated by Prime Minister Lloyd-George yesterday. I gave no such interview."

STATEMENT IS LABELED
"COMPLETE FABRICATION"

LONDON, July 29.—Mr. Lloyd-George read a statement which he said the King authorized him to read on his majesty's behalf:

"His majesty, the king, has said his attention directed to certain statements reporting an interview with Lord Northcliffe, appearing in the Daily Mail and reproduced in the Daily Express and some other newspapers. The statements contained in the report are a complete fabrication. No such conversation as that alleged took place nor were any such remarks made by His Majesty."

"His majesty also desires that it be made quite clear as the contrary is suggested in the interview, that in his speech to the parliament of North Ireland he followed the invariable constitutional practice relating to speeches from the throne in the parliament."

THREE ARE BOUND
OVER IN HEARINGSheriff Believes one Link in Alleged "Chain" is Now Broken.

Claude Hall, Ed Stewart, and Eugene Augustus were bound over to the district court by Justice of the Peace H. J. Brown late yesterday on a charge of stealing a car on July 5 from L. S. Thomason of Allen.

Bond in all three cases was fixed at $1500. Stewart and Hall made bond but Augustus had no complete bail this morning, is bond was fixed at $2000 in another auto theft charge in which he was bound over to the district court last week.

Closing testimony of the trial was furnished for the state by Clayton Bowie who turned state's evidence and told the complete story of an alleged plot in which all the defendants in the case were said to have been implicated. Bowie is under arrest on a charge of helping disguise the car which the three are charged with stealing. Stewart, Bowie testified, was "field marshal" of the situation and is said to have asserted that "there was no danger of Bob Duncan's finding his car since our chain extends across the whole country."

Hall, the prosecution attempted to bring out, was connected with the case by receiving stolen property. He is charged with having bought the car for a nominal sum after it was taken from its owner. Even as officers searched the Sudden Service garage here recently, Bowie said in his testimony, Augustus and the others "got their heads together" in a hurried street conference and discussed the way numbers on the car were changed to disguise it.

"I am satisfied that at least one link in their 'chain across the country' is now broken," Sheriff Bob Duncan said this morning. "We are feeling some better over the car theft proposition and I think we're at the root of one of the big sources of evil. The work is going to be continued, however, until this disappearance of automobiles in the county stops," he added.

Sooner Campus Above Average in Number of Home Building Birds

(By the Associated Press)
NORMAN, July 29.—(Special)—An average of five bird's nests to the acre, which is nearly four times as many as the average of the hundreds of nest censuses sent from all over the country to the United States Biological survey, are found on the University of Oklahoma campus, according to surveys made by students of zoology.

The mourning dove which has been found to eat 9,200 weed seeds a day, and the dickcissel which sings 5,000 times a day, are some of the common varieties. Contrary to general supposition, the mourning turtle dove has a longer nesting period than the sparrow. The sparrow nests from March to August and the dove from March to October. Because of their usefulness in destroying weed seeds federal law protects doves until September 1, but because there is no state law, much illegal shooting of doves is done in August while birds are breeding.

Most birds on the campus are beneficial, with the exception of the sparrow, and also the bronzed grackle or blackbird, which robs nests of the other birds.

FLIER LOSES HIS
RACE WITH DEATHTulsa Aviator Arrives Too Late to See Brother in Lima, Ohio.

(By the Associated Press)
LIMA, Ohio, July 29.—Michael Spellacy of Tulsa, Oklahoma, lost his trans-continental race with death when his aeroplane arrived too late for him to see his brother, Timothy Spellacy, aged 63, of Los Angeles.

Fifteen minutes after he received the message that the death of Timothy was imminent, Michael Spellacy was in his aeroplane and the race was begun. It was late yesterday before he reached Lima.

Timothy Spellacy was a native of Conneaut, Pennsylvania. He located in St. Marys, Ohio, when a young man and was a pioneer in the local oil field and one of the original owners of the Ohio Oil Co.

In later years he was identified with the development of the Texas and Mexican oil fields. He was widely known in politics in California and was at one time a candidate for lieutenant governor of the state. He also served as chairman of the democratic executive committee of California.

The body will be taken to Los Angeles Monday for burial.

BILLION DOLLARS
WASTE IN IDLINGMetal Trades Lose Vast Amount Annually By Still Machinery.

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK, July 29.—Idle men and machinery are the cause of a loss of nearly a billion dollars a year in the metal trades industry, says the report by the committee on elimination of waste in industry of the American engineers' council. This estimate does not include the value of material that would be used if productivity were increased.

Instability of labor employment, the committee said, is the major cause of waste in the industry, which is the largest manufacturing industry in the United States, both in number of employees and value of products.

The average waste due to avoidable labor turnover in the metal trades is computed at $100,000,000.

PRESIDENT WILL

Saturday Opening the Chicago Show.

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 29.—President Harding will press a button in Washington at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, Chicago time, that will formally open the Pageant of Progress Exposition on Chicago's Municipal Pier.

Nearly a thousand firms, corporations and individuals have arranged exhibits of their products, covering a great range of business and industry.

The exhibits include paper products, office appliances, advertising, furniture, rugs, musical instruments, shoes, flowers, food products, health, furs, schools, building materials, electricity, automobiles, both passenger and trucks, and practically every other article in common use.

The automotive section, including passenger automobiles, trucks, motorboats, motorcycles and aeroplanes, is the largest section of the exposition, occupying more floor space than the annual automobile show at the Chicago Coliseum.

The entire exposition, located in the two great upper decks of the Municipal Pier, each of which is 2340 feet long and 67 feet wide, occupies more than ten times the floor space of the Coliseum.

Many Exhibits Planned.
The federal government, the State of Illinois and the City of Chicago will have various exhibits, showing the work of their various bureaus which most closely touch the people. Fur and garment manufacturers will show their choicest creations in a "Pageant of Fashion" to be held in the auditorium on the recreation end of the pier.

While the exposition was originally planned by Mayor Thompson and an advisory committee of business men as a great industrial and business show, to stimulate business and advance Chicago's claim as the Great Central Market, there will also be an entertainment program of unusual attraction. Mayor Thompson is president of the exposition.

The naval militia of the Great Lakes states have been ordered here by Secretary of the Navy Denby to hold their annual summer maneuvers off the Municipal Pier. Sham battles, cutter races and other features will be put on by the fresh water tars.

A four days program of speedboat races, in which the fastest boats of the United States and Canada have been entered, has been arranged.

THE DIVORCE MILL

A league to fight the so-called divorce evil in America has been formed. At the same time English authorities state that the divorce courts are overworked in the British Isles, while marriage is decreasing. English writers attribute the increase in divorces in that country to the war, stating that the home ties formed during the hostile days were lightly considered and were as lightly laid aside once the war had ended.

Granting that divorces are becoming more frequent of late, we are not certain it forebodes evil. If it is a sign that home life is becoming less sacred, then indeed it is a blow at the very heart of civilization, for the home is the nerve center for all civilized nations. But we are inclined to believe that the realization that home life is something sacred is causing at least part of the divorces.

Years ago when to secure a divorce was to go to an enormous expense and almost endless trouble, the dissatisfied person choose rather to endure the condition than to take measures to change it. Now it is different. Realizing once that happiness and love and all the blessings that one expects in a home are not to be obtained with the one to whom he or she has been mated, a person will not delay asking the courts for relief. Oftentimes the person once divorced helps build up a home, as beautiful and poetic as any about which the bards have ever sung.

We do not believe that marriage is often entered into with too little consideration. The girl and boy meet, become enamoured of each other and marry without having anything definite in view or knowing how they will provide shelter or food. Others marry too young; others too old.

The solution of the divorce evil, if it is an evil, is not in the courts; it is in the home when the children are growing up and with the boy and girl between the age of fifteen and twenty, when they are so likely to enter into the marriage state without knowing whether they are bound.

In this connection, the London Daily Telegraph, as a result of the divorce record in England, reaches this conclusion:

"The marriage tie may fundamentally be much more weakened by the difficulty of obtaining divorce on reasonable grounds or by the convention or fear of scandal which prevents men and women having recourse to it than by the facilities which afford relief when it has become unendurable. The alternative in these cases is not a happy union, but life-long separation and enforced bachelorhood, at all events in outward appearance. Evidence of the weightiest kind was offered to the Divorce Commission that this was more and more becoming the effect of the difficulties and anomalies of the English law and the expensiveness of its process. Save that the poor suitor has obtained some little assistance, this condition continues, but in the meantime opinion is ripening toward a rebellion, and the present state of the divorce courts should warn the legislature that if it will not put the matrimonial law on a reasonable footing, the institution of marriage will suffer a serious shock. If the law does not provide relief, the sufferers will take the law into their own hands, and social opinion will condone their offense."

THE MEANEST MAN

Many examples of dishonesty in office have come to light in recent months. At this time Governor Small of Illinois and Judge Wright of this state are under indictment, one for misappropriation of funds while state treasurer and the other for accepting a bribe to decide a case in a certain way. We know not how guilty either of the men is, but if they are guilty they should be given the maximum penalty.

If a man is hungry and steals from another enough to appease his hunger, we can forgive and forget. There may be some excuse for doing a hundred and one petty crimes. The man in whom faith has been expressed by the voters of a district or a state and who knowingly steals from them or accepts a bribe for doing something contrary to the interest of the public is about the meanest wretch in the category of crime.

We are not sure the Italians do not have a better conception of depravity than we Americans. In his Inferno, Dante put Brutus, Judas and a few other betrayers in history in the deepest pit of hell, these being in his estimation the worst wretches in the whole human race. If a person is base because he betrays a friend, how much baser he will be if he betrays not one friend but a whole body politic?

It is a healthy sign to see attempts made to run down any one guilty of betraying the public. We hope that every person in public life who is trying to get money on the side, either directly or indirectly, will serve the remainder of his days in prison. One does not have to accept office, and if he does accept office he should be content with the salary. If he wants to get rich he should never aspire to become a public servant, for honest public servants have never been and never will be wealthy as a result of office.

The Evening News

Comments given below do not necessarily reflect the opinion of the News. In fact, oftentimes the opinion expressed is directly opposite to that held by the News. The opinions are given, however, because this is a newspaper.

Wilson Coming Back!
Hugo Daily News: Woodrow Wilson is coming back!
Not in a political sense, but in the regard, respect and love of the American public.

When he turned over the reins of government to Harding he was a broken man. He is still a broken man physically, but otherwise he is coming back.

An audience in a Washington theater stood back a few days ago as an usher assisted an aged, bent man, who walked with a cane. He was recognized, and the same people who a short time before had eyes only for Harding, cheered the ex-president.

None of us have agreed with Wilson in all things. The great American public, fickle as always, turned from their former favorite to search for a new idol.

Wilson left office a broken man, crushed by the weight of care—the weight of the world's burdens. He went unrewarded, and unsung, a martyr to his ideals. He had given his all. He could do no more.

Most of us must die to have their good qualities recognized. Wilson will be the exception. The public's sense of justice is slowly but surely awakening.

An Old Friend Returning

Tulsa World: Prepare to meet an old-time friend. The silver dollar is going to become real friendly and common again. For something like seven years the mint has ceased to make silver dollars, and during that period took out of circulation for sale abroad something like $200,000,000 of them. There was real money in the transaction so the dollar became almost a novelty, being displaced by reams of paper money of that denomination.

Now the mint is at work again, replacing from bullion, that which had been sold abroad. Inevitably the supply of silver dollars will be noticeably increased. Of course the paper dollar was quite as good and more acceptable to a very large number of people. Still, there are those who cannot feel nearly as independent with a roll of paper as they can with a few dollars whose weight constantly advertises their presence in the pocket.

After all, hard money is hard money.

A TOUGH SITUATION

"My wife and four children were dependent on me for their living. My stomach and liver trouble of five years had made me dependent as no medicine seemed to help me, and I was gradually wasting away. It was a tough situation. My cousin in Columbus wrote me about having taken Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and advised me to try it. I am now feeling better than for fifteen years." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Gwin & Mays Drug Co.

More Salaries for Normal Presidents Will be Announced

As soon as authorities of the state department of education have made an investigation of funds available for the payment of salaries at the six state normal schools, presidents of these institutions lucky enough to be on the list of those provided for generously by the legislature will get $4,200 a year, instead of $3,600.

This was the substance of a report received here from Oklahoma City yesterday.

The plan of the state board to raise the salaries of normal school presidents was formulated during the all day session Wednesday. It is apparent that several of the presidents can get raises, the report said. However, the eighth legislature left the beaten path of its predecessors in making appropriations for the normal schools by "playing favorites" to a certain extent and an accounting must be compiled before the board secretary can notify presidents of the advances. It is not known whether President A. Linscheid of Eastern Normal will be in the list of presidents advanced or not.

OKLAHOMA MAN IS NOW FEELING GOOD

For First Time in Five Years Muskogee Man Can Eat a Meal in Comfort.

"I want to say a good word for Tanlac, too, for it certainly has been a good friend to me," said Wm. B. Chilton, Box 4, R. F. D. No. 4, Muskogee, Okla.

"There's something about Tanlac different from anything I ever tried, for it does what they fail to do. For two years I didn't know what it was to eat a meal without being bothered afterwards by gas on my stomach. Sometimes this gas would rise and press against my heart and made it beat like a trip hammer, and then sometimes it would rise in my throat until I would gasp for breath. I got so nervous that I was restless day and night and just didn't know what it was to get a good sound night's sleep. I was miserable all the time, especially in the morning.

"Tanlac benefited me in every way. In fact I am feeling like a new man now. I eat three big meals a day and never feel the slightest distress afterwards. As soon as Tanlac put my stomach in good condition my nerves got quiet and I began to sleep all night long just like a boy. I have gained several pounds in weight and feel good clean to my finger tips. I am willing to go on record any time and anywhere in favor of Tanlac. It beats any medicine I ever saw or heard anything about."

Tanlac is sold in Ada by M. A. Waits and by leading druggists everywhere.

STATE'S APPLE CROP ESTIMATE IS ONE MILLION

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 29.—Oklahoma is due for a million dollar apple crop alone, despite deprecations of insects and weather, according to an announcement today by John A. Whitehurst, president of the state board of agriculture. Oklahoma has not more than half the apple trees she possessed last year, according to Mr. Whitehurst. This is due principally to neglect. "Oklahoma has as much good apple land as Arkansas," Mr. Whitehurst remarked.

All fruit of the state, with the exception of peaches, will bring more than an average yield, when the decrease in attention and care to orchards is taken into consideration, according to Mr. Whitehurst. The peach crop is also expected to be heavy, except in the extreme northwestern counties.

If your appetite is poor and your stomach and bowels are out of order the remedy you need is Prickly Ash Bitters. It cleanses the system of bilious impurities, sharpens the appetite and makes a man feel fine. Price $1.25 per bottle. Gwin and Mays Drug Co., special agents.

A. & M. STUDENTS MAY WORK OUT EXPENSES

(By the Associated Press)

STILLWATER, July 29.—Scores of boy and girl students at the Oklahoma A. and M. college will be able to pay at least part of their own way through school this year through employment on the campus and college farm of 1,000 acres, according to an announcement of Dr. J. B. Eskridge, new president of A. and M. Virtually all employees needed at the school this year, President Eskridge announced, will be students.

50 COUNTY FAIRS BOOKED IN STATE

Oklahoma, Leading Broom Corn State of Union and Cotton High.

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 29.—Oklahoma will have more than fifty county fairs this year, according to John A. Whitehurst, president of the state board of agriculture. The majority of these fall in September, with a few in October, culminating in the Oklahoma State Fair, at Oklahoma City, September 24 to October 1, and the Oklahoma Free State Fair at Muskogee, October 3 to October 8.

"The county fairs exhibit the reasons Oklahoma farmers are justly proud of their farms, and their counties," Mr. Whitehurst said. "The two state fairs," he added "exhibit the best of all the counties and Oklahoma's true prizes."

In preparing for the fairs this year, for which prize fruits, vegetables and all perishables, are already being shipped to county and state centers, where they are being put in cold storage to await exhibition, the department of agriculture has issued a brief summary of Oklahoma's progress in recent years, and figures from various surveys.

"Oklahoma is now the second largest wheat producing state in the union, the report states. From eleventh position in production in 1910 the state, in ten years, rose until her crop of more than fifty million bushels in 1920, put her in second place.

Seventh in 1919
"Oklahoma ranked seventh in 1919, in total values of all crops. Cotton represented twenty-four per cent of the total value of the 17 leading crops of the state, in 1920, and 1,288,000 bales were produced. Oklahoma ranked fourth in cotton production last year.

"Oklahoma is by far the leading broom corn state of the United States, producing more than all other states combined. It has the largest broom corn market in the world.

"Grain sorghums raised in Oklahoma placed her in second place in 1920, with a production of 40,430,000 bushels. In the production of all grains, Oklahoma ranked eleventh, in 1920, having produced 227,485,000 bushels.

"The dairy business in Oklahoma grew from $3,000,000 a year ten years ago, to $13,000,000 business, in 1920," the summary adds.

The Oklahoma Farm Congress to be held at Stillwater, Oklahoma, August 24 to 31 inclusive, is open to every Oklahoma farmer, his family and to anyone else interested in agriculture. Mr. Whitehurst said today. Plans for betterment of the state agriculturally, and for a closer co-operation will be discussed at that time.

Summer

In all still places,
Places in the hills;
Small winds ripple, go rippling thru
the grass,
And the shadow of the hours,
And the shadow of the flowers,
Ripple with the moments as the warm days pass.

In all the mountain meadows,
High above the fields,
Noon is filled with silence, infinite
and wise;
Cool and blessed lapse of sound,
Never a murmur, save around,
Green and hidden hollows where the clear streams rise.

CROWD GHEERS AS JURIST IS FREED

Judge Wright walked over to where Attorney General Freeling was standing and shook hands with him. He expressed approval of the way the case was handled and said he knew the attorney general was obliged to conduct the case in the way he did, and could help it in view of the information given him. Freeling said, "I am glad you are satisfied with the handling of the case."

Whether a grand jury will be called August 8 by District Judge S. C. Fullerton would not be affirmed or denied here today by the attorney general.

It was pointed out, however, that a grand jury of its own accord could take up its own investigation of the case. No new evidence could be introduced at such a case, but the evidence already offered by the prosecution could be considered in making such an inquiry.

OVERHAUL NORMAL FOR STARTING FALL TERM

Repairs, remodeling work, cleaning up and a general overhauling of machinery and other school equipment is being started at the Normal this week and will continue until completed, according to a report today. Repairs will consist chiefly of making new addition to the roof. All weak sections will be taken out and new ones put in their place.

Remodeling work in the physics and chemistry department is also to be done this summer. This department is badly in need of attention, it is said and the proper results can be obtained until it is put in better condition. Painting, cleaning up and similar work will take up a good part of summer preparations for the fall term.

Schedules and classes are being planned this week. The office force is kept busy making out preliminary class outlines. Everything will be in excellent condition for the summer term and a larger attendance is expected this fall than was had last year. Most of the work will be done by members of the Normal school who are regularly employed.

Mail Library Gives all, From Baby Lore to Auto Discussion

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, July 29.—Information on how when and why to bathe the baby, what to read in the study of any period of literature the correct way to wash the kitchen sink, and when and where the first steamship, phonograph, automobile, or copper kettle was invented, and other diversified information, is contained in package traveling libraries being sent out by the extension division of the University of Oklahoma.

Almost any subject on which information is asked can be supplied through that library, according to Dr. A. C. Scott, director of the extension division says. Packages are sometimes absent for more than a year, Mr. Scott says. Since they are often re-routed to the next inquirer for the same information. One package recently went from the library to the Panhandle, thence to the Red River valley, from there to the Spawfish hills, then to the salt marshes of Greer county, south to Fort Sill, and north to the Kansas border, after which it was returned to the library.

ADA DELEGATES MET WITH DEMO STATE LEADERS

Mrs. Marvin Brown and Tom D. McKeown returned this week from a meeting of the State Democratic committee, at which they represented Pontotoc county. Dr. J. A. Dean, county committeeman, was unable to attend the convention and Mrs. Brown took his place. In this capacity she was entitled to vote in the convention. It is said that this was the first time a woman has voted in the convention.

There was much opposition from the eastern half of the state to the proposed reorganization plan. Final decision as to the plan will be taken this fall, when the county conventions will vote on the plan. The county meetings will probably be held in November.

The plan as proposed is to hold a convention of delegates from the county organizations to determine the Democratic candidates for state offices. Under the plan the delegates would meet unincorporated and select only candidates for state offices. One object of the plan is to save expenses to candidates, who would not be forced to undergo cost of a preliminary campaign.

CALM GIVES COUNTY CHANCE FOR REVIEW

The quiet of a calm that follows a storm hung over the county court house this morning.

With the winding up temporarily of their criminal dockets which have been growing for several weeks, Justices H. J. Brown and W. H. Fisher got a little breathing spell and prepared for the consideration of civil cases under their jurisdiction. The sheriff's office cleaned up on a big lump of business in liquor and car theft investigations and was given an opportunity to start on new cases.

County Attorney Wayne Wadlington got a brief respite from the courtroom to work up cases the preliminaries on which have been set for the early part of August. Other county officers are winding up July business today and clearing their slates for beginning a new month.

OLD-HOME POEM GIVES RAY BIG CHANCE

Charles Ray, the popular screen star, will be seen next Tuesday at the American theatre in "The Old Swimmer's Hole." It is said to be one of the most appealing pictures in which he has yet appeared and to call forth more laughs and tears to the reel than any other of his past successes.

The play was adapted for the screen by Bernard McConville and directed by Joseph De Grasse. It is a First National attraction presented by Arthur Kane. The cast includes such well known players as James Gordon, Blanche Rose, Laura La Plante, Marjorie Prevost, Lincoln Steedman and Lon Poff. Riley's verse is interpreted with such artistry as to both charm the thousands of admirers of the Hoosier poet and to win new converts to his ballads of boyhood's happy days.
